PLEDGE of ALLEGIANCE

Motion by Ron Taylor, support by Todd Johnson to accept agenda as presented, Motion carried

BUDGET AUDIT DISCUSSION :

Ron Taylor has spoken to Dale in treasury department, if audit is not completed township quarterly revenue sharing could be held by state until which time audit is completed. Yvonne recently email Ben Katterman with Stephens Audit firm what she believed to be the discrepancy from 2019, to which Mr. Katterman informed her it's not in 2019 its in 2020-2021. Yvonne Mahl is asking Cindy Rosebrough clerk of Rose City for her help. Ron suggested further training in Pontem may be of help, Yvonne will look into. Going forward Yvonne will reconcile monthly with report to board members at regular meeting. Currently Eileen has changed process on how she gives record of deposit to once a month to Yvonne at board meeting. Ron asked that we have a resolution to audit issue by next meeting, Yvonne agreed.

PENSION PLAN :

2019 to current not paid in, need to get data to Ashley to get it caught up, Yvonne has spoken to and sent information to Ashley earlier in the week. Discussion held as to changing payment to monthly or quarterly versus yearly. Yvonne will discuss with Ashley.

PROPANE PRICES:

Rob Kowalski spoke to 5 companies, says all are competitive in pricing, board decided to stay with Fick & Son
